Re: Reassignment of Cases

Judge Edward R. Gaines will be away from the Court for a period of time on medical leave. For this reason, there will be a reassignment of cases between Judge Olack and Judge Ellington until his return.

Unless a determination is made otherwise, Judge Olack will be assigned cases in the Southern and Hattiesburg Divisions, together with the cases already assigned in the Eastern Division. Judge Olack will continue to be assigned cases in the Greenville Division of the Northern District.

Judge Ellington will be assigned an increased percentage of chapter 7 and 13 cases (including pending cases) in the Jackson Division, and will be assigned cases (including pending cases) in the Western Division. Judge Ellington and Judge Olack will continue to share equally the chapter 11 and 12 cases in the Jackson Division.

Electronic notices will be automatically issued as individual cases are reassigned.

On February 19, 2009, at 10:30 a.m., Judge Olack will be in Room 783 at the courthouse in Gulfport to meet with attorneys who practice in that Court to review with them his plans for handling the docket. Attorneys in the Jackson area may participate by audio conference in Room 170 at the Bankruptcy Court in Jackson.

Your assistance and cooperation will be appreciated during this period.
