

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

ORDER DESIGNATING CHIEF BANKRUPTCY JUDGE
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 154(b)

On August 1, 2013, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge Edward Ellington advised the Court that he intended to step down as the Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge in the Southern District of Mississippi and to continue to serve his current term as a United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Mississippi.

Title 28, United States Code, Section 154(b) provides in part:

In each district court having more than one bankruptcy judge the district court shall designate one judge to serve as chief judge of such bankruptcy court. Whenever a majority of the judges of such district cannot agree upon the designation as chief judge, the chief judge of such district court shall make such designation.

By majority vote of the judges of the Southern District of Mississippi, United States Bankruptcy Judge Neil P. Olack, is hereby designated to serve as Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of Mississippi, for a term of four years to commence on October 1, 2013.

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED this the 16th day of September, 2013.
