STANDING ORDER REGARDING: (A) DISABILITY, IMPAIRMENT, DISBARMENT, OR SUSPENSION OF
DEBTOR'S COUNSEL OR (B) DEATH OF DEBTOR'S COUNSELDANNY L. MILLER
CLERK
BY aw DEPUTY

The U.S. Bankruptcy Judges of the Northern and Southern Districts of Mississippi have determined that it is necessary and appropriate to establish certain procedures to ensure that the interests of the debtor are protected in a bankruptcy case upon the disability, impairment, disbarment, or suspension (the "incapacity") of the debtor's attorney or upon the death of the debtor's attorney.

A. Incapacity of Debtor's Attorney

Once the Court becomes aware of the possible incapacity of a debtor's attorney, the Court may issue an order to show cause (the "Show-Cause Order") to that attorney. The Show-Cause Order will set a date, time, and place for a hearing (the "Show-Cause Hearing") so that the Court may ascertain what steps are necessary to ensure that the debtor continues to be represented in a manner consistent with applicable rules of professional conduct. See, e.g., MISS. RULES OF PROF'L CONDUCT 1.1 (Competence); 1.3 (Diligence); 1.16 (Declining or Terminating Representation). The appearance of the debtor's attorney at the Show-Cause Hearing will be in his or her individual capacity only and not in a representative capacity as counsel for the debtor. The debtor's attorney, or any counsel representing the debtor's attorney, will be afforded twenty-one (21) days to file a written response to the Show-Cause Order. The Show-Cause Order will be similar to "Form A" attached to this Standing Order. Notice of the Show-Cause Order will be sent to: (1) the debtor, (2) the U.S. Trustee, (3) the case trustee, and (4) any entity that has made a notice of appearance or a formal request for notices in the case.

In a chapter 13 case, if the Court concludes that the attorney of a debtor has become incapacitated, the Court may instruct the case trustee to stop payment of fees to that attorney in all chapter 13 bankruptcy cases filed in this judicial district in which that attorney is the attorney of record for the debtor. The trustee shall hold any amounts for payment of attorney's fees and shall send a letter to the attorney stating that the disposition of such fees will be handled pursuant to the resolution of the Show-Cause Order under the procedures set forth in this Standing Order.

B. Death of Debtor's Attorney

Once the Court becomes aware of the possible death of a debtor's attorney, the Court may issue a Show-Cause Order to a partner or supervising lawyer in the law firm in which the debtor's attorney last practiced or to the personal representative of the attorney, if known. The Show-Cause Order will set a date, time, and place for a hearing so that the Court may ascertain what steps are necessary to ensure that the debtor continues to be represented in a manner consistent with applicable rules of professional conduct. See, e.g., MISS. RULES OF PROF'L CONDUCT 1.1 (Competence); 1.3 (Diligence); 1.16 (Declining or Terminating Representation). The appearance of an attorney at the Show-Cause Hearing will not be in a representative capacity as counsel for the Debtor. Any counsel representing the Debtor's attorney will be afforded twenty-one (21) days to file a written response to the Show-Cause Order. The Show-Cause Order will be similar to "Form B" attached to this Standing Order. Notice of the Show-Cause Order will be sent to: (1) the debtor's attorney at his or her last known address, (2) the debtor, (3) the U.S. Trustee, (4) the case trustee, and (5) any entity that has made a notice of appearance or a formal request for notices in the case.

In a chapter 13 case, upon proof of the attorney's death at the Show-Cause Hearing, the Court may instruct the case trustee to stop payment of fees to that attorney in all chapter 13 bankruptcy cases filed in this judicial district in which that attorney is the attorney of record for the debtor. The trustee shall hold any amounts for payment of attorney's fees and shall send a letter to a partner or supervising lawyer in the law firm in which the debtor's attorney last practiced or to the personal representative of the attorney, if known, stating that the disposition of such fees will be handled pursuant to the resolution of the Show-Cause Order under the procedures set forth in this Standing Order.
